The following points were confirmed during submission:

1. JoF is an open access journal with publishing fees of 2000 CHF for an accepted paper (see <https://www.mdpi.com/about/apc/> for details). This manuscript, if accepted, will be published under an open access Creative Commons CC BY license (<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/>), and I agree to pay the Article Processing Charges as described on the journal webpage (<https://www.mdpi.com/journal/jof/apc>). See <https://www.mdpi.com/about/openaccess> for more information about open access publishing.

Please note that you may be entitled to a discount if you have previously received a discount code or if your institute is participating in the MDPI Institutional Open Access Program (IOAP), for more information see <https://www.mdpi.com/about/ioap>. If you have been granted any other special discounts for your submission, please contact the JoF editorial office.

2. I understand that:

a. If previously published material is reproduced in my manuscript, I will provide proof that I have obtained the necessary copyright permission. (Please refer to the Rights & Permissions website: <https://www.mdpi.com/authors/rights>).

b. My manuscript is submitted on the understanding that it has not been published in or submitted to another peer-reviewed journal. Exceptions to this rule are papers containing material disclosed at conferences. I confirm that I will inform the journal editorial office if this is the case for my manuscript. I confirm that all authors are familiar with and agree with submission of the contents of the manuscript. The journal editorial office reserves the right to contact all authors to confirm this in case of doubt. I will provide email addresses for all authors and an institutional e-mail address for at least one of the co-authors, and specify the name, address and e-mail for invoicing purposes.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the JoF editorial office at jof@mdpi.com

Dear Dr. Setiawan,

Congratulations on your paper being accepted for publication in JoF.

To enhance your visibility, as well as that of co-authors, we would like to invite you to set up profiles on SciProfiles (<https://sciprofiles.com>), which will allow us to add a link for each author to their permanent homepage in the final version of the paper.

You can use the link below to register or login using your MDPI credentials:

https://sciprofiles.com/author_registration/87d3cfe460ed25d55c2d8390c1a00a63/UXhiVVpvVjFpclJYSFpGdmlwbUxYVnIGODBQNDdBclFmaU1HTG9xcEVVVT0=

After you have finished setup, please send us the link to your profile within two days, so that all articles you publish with MDPI will be linked to your SciProfiles account, where colleagues and peers will be able to see all of your publications, as well as your other academic contributions.

When filling in your profile:

1. Please use the email address that is associated with your publications if possible;
2. Please add a photo to help colleagues identify you easily and to enhance the visibility of your profile;
3. Since this is your public profile that others will see, please add your publications and key projects. Your publication list can be easily prepared by verifying your ORCID;
4. Please complete all sections of your profile in as detailed as possible, so that other researchers can find you.

Many thanks in advance for your collaboration. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact info@sciprofiles.com.

Kind regards,

Dr. Shu-Kun Lin, Founder and President

Dear Authors,

Congratulations! Your manuscript has been published in JoF.

Thank you for choosing our journal. Your article is already available, open access, to everyone free of charge via the journal website. Promoting your work is an important part of the post-publication process which will increase the visibility, impact and citation of your work. We encourage you to promote and share your article widely.

We have some tips about what you can do to promote your article here:

<https://www.mdpi.com/authors/promoting>

To promote discoverability, views and downloads, you can:

(1) Social Media

- Share your article on various social networks, such as Facebook, LinkedIn, Mendeley and Twitter by clicking the link on the webpage of your article. Tagging @MDPIOpenAccess as well as key people in your field might lead to retweets: Your publication may become viral on social media!
- Send a short text (up to 200 characters) to the MDPI assistant editor who was your contact for the publication of your manuscript, who will then post it on the journal Twitter account.
- Write a blog post to explain the meaning and possible outcomes of your research. This will lead to higher engagement of your research community. Ask your institution or society to post your paper on their social media accounts and to include a story about your paper in their newsletters.

(2) Link Share

- Share the article link directly with colleagues and peers in your field.
- Add a link to your article in your email signature.
- Update your personal and institutional websites by adding the title of your article and a link to it.

(3) Academic Research-sharing Platforms

- Set up your profile on academic research-sharing platforms, such as SciProfiles, ResearchGate, Academia.edu or Google Scholar, and add a short summary of your article.
- Register an ORCID author identifier and add the article information to your profile.
- Deposit your article in repositories (such as those run by your university) to make your research more discoverable.

(4) Conferences

- Present your publication at conferences in the form of a presentation or a poster. You may participate in conferences relevant for your field organized by MDPI on Sciforum.net.

Please keep up with any journal updates and news via our twitter account

(https://twitter.com/JoF_MDPI) or LinkedIn page
(<https://www.linkedin.com/company/76120972/admin/>).
Find out more about MDPI on our website: <https://www.mdpi.com/about>.
