Dear Wayan Suana:

We have reached a decision regarding your submission to Journal of Technology and Science Education, "Students' Internet Access, Internet Self-Efficacy, and Internet for Learning Physics: Gender and Grade Differences".

Our decision is to: Revisions required

When you revise your manuscript please highlight the changes you make in the manuscript by using the track changes mode in MS Word or by using bold or coloured text. In order to expedite the processing of the revised manuscript, please be as specific as possible in your response to the reviewer and revise your manuscript within 20 days to avoid any further delay in publishing your article. If we do not received your response in this deadline, your paper will be archived.

To submit the revision, log into http:// www.jotse.org. Go to the section "USER HOME" and then to the sub-section "AUTHOR". There, you will find all your manuscripts. Select the manuscript that you want to upload.

Please, do not hesitate to ask if you have any questions or suggestions.

Reviewer B:

-----
CONTENT (e.g.: Clarity of objective; basis of theory; conclusions drawn; understanding of subject, contribution to technology and Science education.)

Score ( out of 20)

Comments:

Score: 15/20

The content of the manuscript is clearly presented and the objectives are well defined. The results could be useful to design internet supported learnings in science teaching.

DEGREE OF NOVELTY OR ORIGINALITY (e.g.: presence of new ideas; elsewhere)

Score ( out of 10)

Comments

Score: 5/10

In this manuscript, authors adapt a questionnaire from other authors and compare the results with the previous one. Although the items are not original the results of the comparison are interesting.

STRUCTURE OF PAPER (e.g.: general layout; use and number of figures/diagrams, etc.)

Score ( out of 10)

Comments:

Score: 8/10

The structure of the manuscript is correct and the results are well presented. The tables show the items and the results in a friendly way.

QUALITY OF TEXT (e.g.: Clarity of expression; consistency; readability; number of quotations, quality and quantity of references)

Score ( out of 10)

Comments

Score: 7/10

Some spelling mistakes have been found in the text but the readability is very good. Only one sentence has to be rewritten because its meaning is not clear. Tables 5 and 7 are not referenced in the text; authors have to include these references.

There are three papers in the list of references that are not referenced in the text. Authors have to remove them from the list of references or include them in the text.

REVIEWER'S GENERAL OPINION AND COMMENTS (e.g.: correctness of the text; applicability of the items included; quality of the manuscript; scope covered)

Score ( out of 50)

Comments      Score: 40/50

The topic in the manuscript is interesting. The main strength of the study is the great number of students included in the survey.
