Dear Netti H.; I just received a bimonthly periodical on Dec. 18, 2020, Journal of Health and Human Ecology, vol. 86; no. 6, in which our paper on “heavy smoking and depression”, has been printed and published*. I expect you will also receive it later in a few weeks. I shall also receive 100 reprints of the paper and three bills for the reprints, basic cost, and fee for urgent process, which will be paid by me.
