Dear Endang Nurcahyani,

We are reminding you to upload the copyright transfer and payment proof for the AIP Publication since we COULD NOT PROCEED your paper without that. Also, we are aware that some of authors faced the problem regarding upload the payment proof through the link. We are sorry for your inconvenience, now we have revised the link and you can try to upload the payment proof again.

For copyright transfer, if the copyright owner is the Author(s), you only need to fill Article title, All Author(s) -name-, and Author signature (including print name and date). You also can see the example HERE.

Please see our previous email if you forget the DEADLINE or WHERE TO TRANSFER or HOW MUCH you need to transfer, etc. on the link: <http://bit.ly/SMIC2020PublicationEmailHistory>. Thank you.

Best Regards,

SMIC 2020
Publication Team

Thank you, I will do that. I have already sent it. I have transferred the money.

Dear Endang Nurcahyani,

We have just been informed by AIP Publishing that they will ask the corresponding author to complete an online copyright form later in the final stage of the publishing process.

Previously, we asked you to complete the AUTHORS' LICENSE TO PUBLISH AGREEMENT FOR CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS. Now we would like to inform you that the form is no longer applies. So, if you have not uploaded it, you do not need to do that, but if you have done it, just leave it as it is.

AIP Publishing may ask you to complete an online copyright form later. Please make sure that the corresponding author's email address is active. At this stage, the corresponding author will communicate directly with AIP Publishing. We will not take any responsibilities for any communication problems between AIP Publishing and the corresponding author.

We are sorry for the inconvenience.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely,
Dr. Mutia Delina
The Chairman of SMIC 2020

Preliminary of AIP Copyright Transfer Agreement

Dear Authors,

We would like to inform you that the SMIC papers are being reviewed by AIP publisher for the proceeding production. Please be noted that:

1. AIP Publisher will send the license of copyright transfer to the corresponding authors' email within a few weeks.
2. Please check your email regularly. Once you receipt the email, please respond to it as soon as possible. You should make sure that the co-authors agree to this publication and then add the co-authors' name and email to the copyright transfer agreement.

Late responses to the AIP copyright transfer license may result in un-published papers. In such cases, the SMIC conference committee will not take any responsibilities.

If you have any questions regarding the SMIC conference proceeding, please feel free to contact the SMIC organizing committee at smic2020@unj.ac.id. Please do not contact the AIP Publisher directly for any reason.

Best regards,
