Dear Professor Henu Wahyudi,

I am forwarding you the comments of the Associate Editor with regards to your Re-revised manuscript.

I am not able to approve the Publication of the article with ID: 5107-2001 in the WSEAS Transactions for the following reasons:

1. English Language
Kindly compose an email in Gmail and transfer three parts of your texts. Gmail is connected with a correction tool and all errors will be underlined with a red line

Guidelines on how to use Gmail for improving the English Language on your manuscript:
<https://0072ca.netsofhost.com/webcamera/correctionmistakes.webm> (Google Chrome)

2. Citations
The authors have to improve the citations:

Instead of developing a region [1]
the authors have to write
developing a region. [1]

Instead of
Economic growth is impacted by economic and non-economic factors [2]
the authors have to write
Economic growth is impacted by economic and non-economic factors. [2]

See also this type of error:
Instead of [7] explained that if the development of human resources has increased,
the authors have to write
The authors in [7] explained that if the development of human resources has increased.

These are only some examples as the paper has many errors.

In addition, the authors need to look over and verify whether the in-text citations exist in the reference list and whether all the articles mentioned in the reference list exist in the in-text citations.

Check also if the in-text citations of the Tables, Equations and Figures are properly connected with the Tables, Equations and Figures.

This means that you need to cross check if all citations of your text are referred to in the reference list at the end of your manuscript as well as if the references of the reference list are properly cited in your text.

The authors need to cite (to refer) all their references in the text of their manuscript by enclosing every citation in brackets [] if a citation [] is within a sentence, then it should be mentioned as ". [1] " and if a citation [] is at the end of the sentence, then it should be mentioned as ". [1]"

3. WSEAS Format
The format of the paper should be in accordance with the WSEAS Template: <https://www.wseas.com/format.php>

As soon as you are ready with your Re-revised version, please email to me the .doc/.docx. version.

Comparison of Short-Term and Long-Term Estimation of Syariah Banking Performance

Author(s): Heru Wahyudi, Ukhti Ciptawaty, Arivina Ratih, Rahmah Dianti Putri, MaHyudin Ahmad, Aryan Danil Mirza. Br

Abstract: Syariah banking system is one of the exciting research objects and has the potential to continue to be developed. Sharia banking is a new way out of banking. On a more macro level, the banking system affects banking performance on economic growth. Islamic banking is also stated to contribute better than conventional banking in achieving SDG points. The primary purpose of this study is to examine the development of conventional and Islamic banks in the future for short- and long-term analysis. The analysis will discuss how productive assets, bank profits, and third-party funds are both types of banking and how these three things contribute to economic growth for the next five years. Research analysis will be able to provide a comparison of the application of the short and long-term performance of sharia concepts to economic growth. Furthermore, it will be seen how the contribution of the two existing periods of the term of banking to economic growth, which one has a more significant impact on economic growth. Data was gathered for eleven years to test these relationships and Data was gathered for eleven years to test these relationships and analyzed accordingly. Besides descriptive analysis, correlations, and regression, mediation analysis was carried out using Vector Autoregression (VAR). VAR is a model that can analyze the interdependence relationship between time series variables. The results proved that profits, credits and assets significantly affect the short and long term. This study has some meaningful contributions towards both short and long practical knowledge of the subject matter, especially for banking and Government.
