When was the last time we had a big dream to achieve? This book is about my story of achieving one of my big dreams; moving, studying, and living in Europe.

Once, in my class, I told my students about the moral of the story we had just played in class. 'The moral of the story is there is a significant difference between two dreamers. The dreamers that always dream big will always work on their dream and the empty dreamers do nothing and are delusional. They fantasize about something and
