Reviewer:

- >> The writing of the manuscript. There are many incomplete sentences or sentences without subjects.
- >> Your abstract does not highlight the specifics of your research or findings. Rewrite the Abstract section to be more meaningful. I suggest being Problem, Aim, Methods, Results, and Conclusion.
- >> Introduction section can be extended to add the issues in the context of the existing work and how proposed approach can be used to overcome this.
- >> Add main contributions list as points in the Introduction section.
- >> Add the rest organization section at the end of the Introduction section.
- >> The authors should consider more recent research done in the field of their study
- >> If no one has proposed a method before, this claim should be highlighted much more. Else, it should be indicated who has done this, and it should be indicated what the innovations of the current paper are.
- >> Explain what kind of simulations will be provided in Section 4 at the beginning of the section.
- >> The proposal does not present information so can be reproduced by readers.
- >> Please, also provide a paragraph with three to five clear positive impacts
- >> The authors also do not describe why the proposed outperformed other existing methods.
- >> Results need more explanations. Additional analysis is required at each experiment to show its main purpose.
- >> The results are not easy to follow. The proposed method and experiments are not clearly illustrated. The Result and Discussion section is inadequate. Need more attention and better explanation.
- >> The authors should further detail the preparation
- >> A comparison with state of art in the form of table should be added
- >> The Limitations of the proposed study need to be discussed before conclusion.

>> Please include the contribution of this paper, limitation of this study and future research in the Conclusion Section.
