Dear authors,
Paper No. 106
entitled "Washing Metals in Rice Straw to Improve Combustion Properties".

Thank you for your contribution to ICBB 2020.
Following the previous acceptance of your paper,
we are pleased to inform you to accept your paper
included in the application of ICBB 2020 publication in the IOP Conference Series, a SCOPUS indexed publication.
under the condition to revise the manuscript
according to the reviewer's comments as follows.

The reviewer's comments 1:

Please adjust the paragraph in the parts of introduction and calorific value.
Data for phosphorus at 30 min is strange. Could it be corrected...?

The reviewer's comments 2:

Major revision. It would be better if this paper is proofread to improve the English and grammatical errors. Please change the word of "minutes" with "min". Please add the unit of ash composition in Table 1. Please be notified that there should be a space between number and unit, e.g., degree celcius. Pease use the appropriate formula of chemicals. Please refer to the scientific papers related to the biomass and bioenergy.

Please proceed to make necessary corrections and upload the revised pdf version to your Easychair submission page.

Important:

Please also send the Ms. Word version of your revised paper to the secretariat email: icbb.secretariat@gmail.com
for the final layout and editing works.

The revised full paper submission deadline is 17 October 24 hours West Java, Indonesia time and your revision to the reviewer's comments is the condition for your paper publication.

If you do not revise your paper and submit it by the deadline, your paper publication will be suspended, and refund cannot be made.

Best regards,

Paper Committee
ICBB 2020
